DOMINICA

CITIZENSHIP BY INVESTMENT PROGRAM

The Government of the Commonwealth of Dominica established the Dominica Citizenship by Investment Program in 1993, which under certain conditions allowed overseas investors to become citizens. Currently, this is among the most recognised and long-running economic citizenship programmes in existence. Those who apply are given permanent citizenship and a passport without having to live there or give up their current nationality.

ABOUT DOMINICA

The Commonwealth of Dominica is a popular ecotourism destination because of its natural surroundings, including its lush mountainous forest, natural hot springs, and diving places. It is known as the "Nature Isle of the Caribbean."

Since gaining its independence in 1979, the nation has been a part of the Organization of American States (OAS), CARICOM, the British Commonwealth, and numerous other international organisations.

Dominica has the lowest crime rate in the area and is a politically and economically stable country. Dominica also acknowledges dual citizenship.

Timeline to Citizenship:

It generally takes up to 4 months for the entire process to materialize

Step 1 (1-2 Months)

Your passport will be pre-screened by us for government pre-approval. To begin your application, a professional fee down payment is required. The skilled staff at CTrustGlobal will help and counsel you as you gather the paperwork that the government requires. Government processing fees, due diligence, and our submission invoice are due after the file is prepared for submission. Your application is sent by our agents.

Step 2 (2 – 3 Months)

A report on due diligence is given to the government. The Government decides whether to grant your request for citizenship in light of the findings. Once accepted, you are requested to make an investment or donation.

Step 3 (3 -4 Months)

Passports and citizenship certificates are issued. The remaining professional charge for our services has been paid.
